

Landra L. Fair

Education Program Manager, Kansas University Center on Disabilities
1122 West Campus Road, Room 706
Lawrence, KS 66045
Phone: 785-864-2278 | Email: lfair@ku.edu

Professional Summary

Dedicated education program manager with a strong foundation in curriculum and instruction, specializing in inclusive practices and supports for individuals with disabilities. Proven ability to design engaging, accessible curricula and foster academic and emotional growth for diverse learners. Committed to data-informed practice, collaboration, and continuous improvement.

Education

Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction

University of Kansas, 2009

Bachelor of Arts in Biology

University of Kansas, 1993

Professional Experience

Education Program Manager

Kansas University Center on Disabilities (KUCD), University of Kansas, Lawrence, KS
2024 – Present

- Development and implementation of educational programming that supports individuals with disabilities and promotes inclusive practices.
- Collaborate with faculty, staff, and external partners to design and evaluate instructional materials and training initiatives.

Science Teacher

Mill Valley High School, Shawnee, KS
2009 – 2024

- Designed and implemented engaging, student-centered lessons using learning theory and Universal Design principles to ensure success for all students.
- Collaborated with colleagues to collect and analyze student performance data, adapting instruction based on what strategies proved most and least effective.

Human Subjects Committee Associate Coordinator

University of Kansas Center for Research, Inc., Lawrence, KS
2002 – 2004

- Supported the Institutional Review Board (IRB) in protecting the rights, well-being, and personal privacy of human research participants.

Grants Monitor

University of Kansas Center for Research, Inc., Lawrence, KS
1997 – 2002

- Assisted KU faculty in preparing and reviewing research proposals for submission to federal, state, and private funding agencies.
-

Professional Certification

Kansas State Board of Education

Professional teaching license for middle and high school science.